

Statement of Accessibility

(In Line with National Disability Authorities Guidelines)

Introduction

is committed to ensuring digital accessibility for all users, including people with disabilities. We strive to provide an inclusive and user-friendly experience that aligns with the National Disability Authorities (NDA) guidelines and the European Accessibility Act (EAA).

Our Commitment

We are dedicated to making our website accessible by:

- Adhering to Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 AA standards (at a minimum).
- Ensuring all content is perceivable, operable, understandable, and robust.
- Regularly reviewing and updating accessibility features to improve user experience.

Accessibility Features

Our website includes the following accessibility enhancements:

- Keyboard Navigation: Users can navigate our website without a mouse.
- Alternative Text (Alt Text): Most images and media elements have descriptive alt text.
- Screen Reader Compatibility: Our site is tested with assistive technologies.
- Colour Contrast: Text and background colours meet contrast ratio guidelines.
- Accessible Forms: Clear labels, error messages, and logical tab navigation.
- Adjustable Text Size: Users can resize text without losing readability.
- Video Captions and Transcripts: Multimedia content includes captions or transcripts.
- Ongoing Efforts & Feedback

We are continuously improving our accessibility features, however we are aware that there may be documents on this website that may not currently comply with the required standard. We are working our way through these and are more than happy to provide an accessible format for any such document.
